Dancers will only perform the parts of the rehearsals they attended:

Group A ~ Emily Anderson, Sarah Baker, Nicole Drinkwater, Nia Jones, Allison McClelland and Sasha Maraj

Group B ~ Morgan Colburn, Danielle Deros, Daniela DiGiacomo, Katrine Garcia, Alyssa Kornick, Claire Rainville, Jessica “Missi” Salter, Jordan Siebert and Naomi Sinn

Attendance:

Please strive for extremely consistent attendance. We understand that dancers become ill especially during flu season or other obligations may stand as an obstacle here and there. If you are unable to attend class, we ask that you kindly call me as a courtesy (410) 733-2188 or email at Val.Wagner-Hippen@opm.gov and I will notify your dancer's instructor. Instructors reserve the right to choreograph around students who have missed class or who are consistently late. This means, if your dancer is not in class when new choreography is taught, the instructor reserves the right to eliminate him/her from a "chunk" of the routine and when the dancer returns to class, the instructor will bring him/her back into the routine. This is especially the case for the intermediate and advanced level dance classes and Companies. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to let me know.

Attendance Awards

All dancers have an opportunity to receive a "Perfect Attendance Award" or an "Outstanding Attendance Award".

Perfect Attendance means no missed classes and not more than 20 minutes late or left more than 20 minutes early in any class regardless of the duration of the class. If a dancer was 20 minutes or more late or left 20 minutes or more early, this counts as ½ an absence but the dancer must be present at least ½ the class time to count as attending.

Outstanding Attendance means missing no more than a total of 2 classes.

For each registered class, each dancer has a chance to earn a Perfect or Outstanding Attendance award however only ONE attendance award will be given to each dancer no matter how many classes the dancer has perfect or outstanding attendance. The highest award will be given at our Awards Ceremony on Thursday, May 27, 2010. More details to follow in future newsletters.

NOTE to dancers who joined late: Attendance was counted as of first day of classes not when dancers started so if your dancer joined in week 3 and never missed, he/she will have 2 misses. This is to be fair to the dancers who have been there since the first week of classes.

If you would like to know the exact number of misses for your dancer in any class, please see the total listed on the left hand side of the class attendance sheets. If you have any questions or feel the list is inaccurate, please email me as soon as possible at Val.Wagner-Hippen@opm.gov. We will be ordering awards based on the lists below.

The list of Perfect and Outstanding Attendance as of January 31, 2010 can be found on our website www.ltrc.org/tapandjazz/index.html

Dancers who have missed more than 2 classes will not appear on the list.
